Hope Air ensures Canadians can access the critical medical care they need regardless of cost and distance.

Those who live in small communities or far away from urban centers may have to travel long distances to reach health care. Hope Air is Canada's only national charity providing travel and accommodations for Canadians in financial need who must access medical care far from home.

When you support Hope Air, you can make an immediate impact on people's lives and reduce critical barriers that many patients face. By helping patients during times like these, you let them focus on what's truly important - their health!
